1 Research Fellowship for Master's Students

Applications are invited for 1 research fellowship at the Portucalense Infante D. Henrique University (UPT), within the framework of the “Siza ATLAS: filling the gaps for World Heritage” project, reference SIZA/ETM/0023/2019, funded by national funds through the Portuguese Foundation for Science and Technology, I.P. (FCT), according to the following terms:

Scientific area: Architecture

Admission requirements

The applicants must be enrolled in a Master’s or Integrated Master’s programme within the scientific area mentioned above (to be proven at the contract stage).

Preferred requirements

The applicant should have completed the 1st cycle of studies and be in the process of developing a master's thesis on the 20th Century Architecture topic, classified or to be classified as World Heritage.

In case of an academic degree awarded by a foreign higher education institution, the candidate must abide by the provisions of the Decree-Law No 66/2018 of 16 August and ensure full compliance before signing the contract. For more on this specific topic, please check the DGES webpage at: <https://www.dges.gov.pt/en/pagina/degree-and-diploma-recognition>.

Applicant eligibility

The applicants must comply with the eligibility criteria set out in article 9 of the Regulation for Research Grants of the Portuguese Foundation for Science and Technology.

Work plan

The Siza ATLAS project carries out an investigation and comparison with other works of contemporary architecture classified as World Heritage, aiming to justify the exceptional value of Siza's architecture, in a national and international context. In this sense, the research fellow will work with the team of the UPT's branch of the Research Centre for Architecture, Urbanism and Design (CIAUD-UPT) to develop the project activities listed below, which may involve frequent face-to-face meetings with project partners:

Task 3 - Documentation and analysis of works;

Task 4 - Recommendations for World Heritage List.

Applicable legislation and regulation

Law No 40/2004 of 18 August, in its current wording - Research Fellow Statute (EBI) and the Regulation in force for Research Studentships and Fellowships (RBI) of the Portuguese Foundation for Science and Technology (FCT):

<https://www.fct.pt/en/financiamento/programas-de-financiamento/bolsas>.

Workplace

The research fellow will be working at the premises of UPT, under the scientific supervision of Prof. Mariana Rita Alberto Rosado Correia.

Fellowship duration

This fellowship post will be offered on a 3-month contract, with the possibility of renewal, predictably starting in March 2024, and carried out on an exclusive basis.

The fellowship cannot be granted, according to article 6, paragraph 3, of the FCT RBI, if the timescale required for the contract procedure does not allow a minimum 3-consecutive month contract. Contract renewal, if any, will comply with Article 6 of the FCT RBI.

Stipend

Monthly stipend amount of €990,98, in accordance with FCT stipend values for studentships and fellowships carried out in Portugal (<https://www.fct.pt/en/financiamento/programas-de-financiamento/bolsas>). The payments are made by UPT via bank transfer.

The fellowship will also cover the voluntary social insurance payments, corresponding to the class 1 rate (if the fellowship contract duration is equal to or greater than 6 months) provided that the candidate chooses this regime, as well as personal accident insurance.

Selection procedure

The selection methods will consist of a Curricular Assessment (AC) and an interview (ES).

The Curricular Assessment (AC) compasses the aspects mentioned below, scored on a scale from 0 to 20 points, and is calculated as follows:

$$AC = AC1 * 0,3 + AC2 * 0,3 + AC3 * 0,2 + AC4 * 0,2$$

AC1 – Degree classification obtained in the 1st cycle of studies;

AC2 – Alignment of the proposed Master's or Integrated Master's dissertation to the research activities carried out in the project;

AC3 – Letter of motivation;

AC4 – Proficiency in Portuguese and English languages.

The three top-scoring applicants in the curricular assessment will be invited for an interview (ES), to take place remotely or in person, provided that the AC scores are higher than 14 points.

The interview is aimed at evaluating the applicant according to the criteria below and is calculated as follows:

$$ES = ES1 * 0,5 + ES2 * 0,25 + ES3 * 0,25$$

ES1 – Knowledge and motivation to pursue the work plan

Excellent level of knowledge and motivation - from 16 to 20 points

Adequate level of knowledge and motivation - from 10 to 15 points

Lack or insufficient level of knowledge or motivation - from 0 to 9 points

ES2 – Soft skills (time management, problem-solving, critical thinking, teamwork, proactivity)

Highly proficient – from 16 to 20 points

Competent - from 10 to 15 points

Insufficient proficiency - from 0 to 9 points

ES3 – Communication skills and proficiency in English:

Highly proficient – from 16 to 20 points

Competent - from 10 to 15 points

Insufficient proficiency - from 0 to 9 points

The Final Score (AF) is given by the weighted average of the classification obtained in each of the selection methods, with the Curriculum Assessment (AC) having a weight of 70% and the Interview (ES) of 30%. If the minimum score of 14 points is not achieved by any of the applicants, the fellowship will not be awarded.

Selection panel composition

The selection panel is composed of the following Professors at UPT:

Chair of the panel — Professor António Jorge da Costa Leite

Panel member — Professor Mariana Rita Alberto Rosado Correia

Panel member — Professor Telma Filipa Ferreira Chito Ribeiro

Deputy member — Professor Maria Goreti Ferreira de Sousa

Deputy member — Professor Gilberto Jorge Carreira Duarte Carlos

Notification of results

The applicants will receive notification of the evaluation results by email, at the email address provided in the application submission, within a maximum of 90 working days, by article 12 of the FCT RBI. This notification will include, in addition to the applicant ranking list, the minutes of the selection panel meetings. If the selected candidate withdraws, the fellowship will be granted to the next highest scoring applicant on the ranking list, provided that the minimum required score is attained.

Deadlines and procedures for pre-hearing, complaint, and appeal

After notification of the provisional evaluation results, applicants have a 10-working day pre-hearing period to argue against, pursuant to Article 121 et seq. of the Portuguese Code of Administrative Procedure. After the selection panel examines the cases presented in the pre-hearing of interested parties, the applicants will be notified of the final decision. In case of disagreement with the final decision, the applicants may lodge a complaint within 15 working
